DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 55 and 57 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The specification does not describe a radiation intercepting member metal element corresponding to the symbol "Gd".

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claim 55 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 55 recites the limitation "radiation intercepting member" in lines 1-2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. Claim 1 establishes a radiation intercepting bonding portion but there is no requirement for a member to bond.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

7. Claims 6 and 60 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kusuyama et al. (WO0036436A1) and Sayag et al. (US005715292A).

With respect to independent claim 6, Kusuyama et al. discloses a fiber plate (Fig. 2) formed by arranging in mutually adjacent manner a plurality of individual fiber plates 12, 14, 16 of a same thickness so as to provide a light guiding plane (Fig. 1) larger in area than the light guiding plane of each of the individual fiber plates, and wherein each of the individual fiber plates 12, 14, 16 is composed of a group of optical fibers having mutually parallel axes (page 3, line 20 to page 4, line 5) and lateral faces of the plurality of individual fiber plates 12, 14, 16 are mutually so bonded (with adhesive 24, page 4, lines 10-16) that the axes of the optical fibers thereof become mutually parallel (Fig. 2). Although the lateral faces of the individual fiber plates 12, 14, 16 in the fiber plate of Kusuyama et al. include a face parallel to the normal line of the light guiding plane (Fig. 2) the use of a lateral face which crosses the normal line is known from Sayag et al. (column 7, lines 6-10). In view of the advantageous reduction in "dead space" suggested by Sayag et al. which is sought by Kusuyama et al. (page 4, line 26 to page 5, line 13) it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the fiber plate of Kusuyama et al. to have a sloping lateral face therein.

With respect to dependent claim 60, the fiber plate of Kusuyama et al. is a part of a radiation image pickup apparatus.

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claims 1-4, 59, 21, 23, 24, 32, 34, 35, 58, and 61 allowed.

9. Claim 56 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

10. Applicant's arguments, see page 12, filed August 19, 2003, with respect to claims 1-4 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of claims 1-4 has been withdrawn.

11. Applicant's arguments filed August 19, 2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

The displacement identified by Sayag et al. as quoted by Applicant's representative is an inevitable consequence of having sloped lateral faces ("...fiber optic faceplates 18b that are bias cut so that the input and output image planes are displaced laterally...") and not an identification of any spacing between lateral faces ("...closely abutting...SFOCCD assemblies 18..." see also Fig. 6). Furthermore, since bonding of lateral faces is disclosed by Kusuyama et al., stating that Sayag et al. does not show bonding is irrelevant when the references have been properly combined.

For at least the reasons explained above, Applicant is not entitled to a favorable determination of patentability in view of the arguments submitted August 19, 2003.

Conclusion

12. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
